Tour to Catherine's palace and park

Duration 5 hours

Our licensed English-speaking guide and chauffeur will meet you in the lobby of your hotel with a name board. The drive in a comfortable vehicle to Catherine's palace will take you about 1 hour. Pushkin town is located in 25 km from St. Petersburg.

The majestic Catherine's palace and park was one of the most beautiful summer residences of the Russian Tzar's family. It was originally built for Catherine I as her "palace of 16 chambers". The grounds were presented to her as a wedding gift by her dear husband Peter. Later the palace was redesigned for her daughter Elisabeth in luxurious baroque.

During the tour of the Palace you will walk through the majestic gallery of the state halls where balls, receptions and gala dinners took place. The Golden suite of rooms is made with gold leaf. It is luxurious and opulent.

With our guide the Palace will get alive with its mysterious stories, intrigues and plots.

In the Palace the famous Amber Room or "the Eighth Wonder of the World" is kept.

You will be able to see and enjoy this unique masterpiece.

After the Palace you can have a walk in the beautiful Catherine's park.

Tour to Yusupov Palace

Duration 2,5 hours

Your private guide and chauffeur will meet you at the hotel with a board name. You will drive in a comfortable vehicle to Yusupov Palace - one of the most prominent architectural gems of the Russian «Northern capital».

The Yusupov Palace is a unique 18th-20th century architectural ensemble. It was owned by five succeeding generations of the Yusupov princely dynasty.

The Palace went down in Russian history as the place where Grigory Rasputin, a Siberian peasant, mystical spiritual mentor and friend of the family of Emperor Nicholas II was assassinated. The tragedy unfolded on the night of December 17, 1916 in the Living quarters of the young Prince Felix Yusupov. Today these rooms house a display of historic pictures, documents and wax figures of the participant of the crime.
